A Genuine Love Story.

AN INCIDENT IN THE CARS.—On the whole pleasant trains and characters are not common in the cars. This opinion I expressed to my friend Summers the other day.

I was escorting home the lovely Charlotte D—, to whom I was at that time devoted. Charlotte could scarcely find room to spread her crinoline and arrange her voluminous flounces. I stood up near her, there being no vacant seat.

After a few minutes, came in a poor woman, who deposited a basket of clothes on the front platform, and held in her arms a small child, while a little girl hung to her dress. She looked tired and weary, but there was no vacant seat; to be sure, Charlotte might have condensed her flounces, but she did not. Beside her, however, sat a very lovely and elegant young woman, who seemed by moving down closer to others, to make space enough for the stranger between herself and Miss D.

At last she succeeded, and with the sweetest blush I ever saw, she invited the woman to be seated. Charlotte D— drew her drapery around her, and blushed too, but it was not a pretty blush at all, and she looked annoyed at the proximity of the new comer, who was, however, clean and decently, though thinly clad.

The unknown lady drew the little girl upon her lap, and wrapped her velvet mantle around the small half-clad form, and put her muff over the half-frozen little blue hands.

So great was the crowd that I alone seemed to observe. The child shivered—the keen wind from the door blew on her unprotected neck. I saw the young lady quietly draw from under her cloak a little woolen shawl, which she softly put on the shoulders of the little one, the mother looking on with confused wonder. After a short time she arose to leave the cars, and would have removed the shawl, but the unknown gently whispered, "No, keep it for her." The woman did not answer, the conductor hurried her out, but her eyes swam with tears. I noticed her as she descended to the basement, and I hastily marked the house.

Soon after my unknown also rose to depart.—I was in despair, for I wanted to follow and discover her residence, but could not leave Miss D—.

How glad, then, I was to see her bowing, as she passed to a mutual acquaintance who stood in the doorway. From him ere many minutes, I learnt her name and address.

To shorten the story as much as possible, that lady is now my wife. In the small incident which introduced her to me she showed her real character. A few days after our marriage I showed her the blessed crimson shawl, which I redeemed from its owner, and shall keep as a memento. There are sometimes pleasant things to be found in unexpected places; certainly I may be said to have picked out my wife in the cars."

Drunken Congressmen.

There never was greater need than at present for a vigorous prosecution of the war against intemperance in high places. Whether Senator Wilson has become discouraged or disgusted I know not, but he seems to have entirely relinquished his Christian efforts, of a year ago, to reform his Congressional brethren through the agency of his temperance society. One gentleman, who was an exemplary member of the Congressional Temperance Society, a year ago, astonished and appalled the boarders at Willard's one morning last week, by entering the breakfast room in his night shirt, at about 10 A. M.; another was taken home in a hand cart, not many Sundays since; while still another, over whose conversation all the ladies were a year ago, saturating their pocket handkerchiefs, and "carrying on" in a more melodramac way than anything recorded of the Black Lane Branch of the Ebenezer Temperance society, of which the elder Mr. Weller's "second wentur" was such a bright and shining light—that gentleman (need I say he is a distinguished Senator from the West?) has been, for a week or more, confined to his room and a diet of pickled cabbage to help him over a prolonged carouse, terminating in the delirums. Nor is this all. Would that it were. It is not even the worst.

As this subject is a delicate one, I shall be pardoned, I trust, for withholding names. The moral sense of the nineteenth century revolts against such publicity as a vile slander. The newspapers are licensed to be funny over the police court reports, and to blazon forth poor John Smith's debauch as an awful example, but between a great man and his "little weaknesses" the moral ones hang a veil which no journalistic Asmodeus dare lift, without incurring censure as an irresponsible scribbler and an envenomed calumniator. A particular case (I repeat that I use no names) has become so serious of late that an eminent bishop of the Methodist church has been sent for, and has come all the way from Philadelphia to see what he can do in the way of reforming the eminent sinner. Strange work for a bishop, whose office is, or ought to be, to administer, instead of prohibit, spiritual consolation.—Correspondence of Cincinnati Commercial.

Progress of the Mormons.

Thirty-six years ago there were six Mormons in America; none in England; none in the rest of Europe, and to-day (1866) they have twenty thousand saints in Salt Lake City, four thousand each in Ogden, Provo, and Logan; in the whole of their stations in these valleys (one hundred and six settlements, properly organized by them, and ruled by bishops and elders) a hundred and fifty thousand souls; in other parts of the United States about eight or ten thousand; in England and its dependencies, about fifteen thousand; in the rest of Europe, ten thousand; in Asia and the South Sea Islands, about twenty thousand; in all not less perhaps, than two hundred thousand followers of the gospel preached by Joseph Smith. All these converts have been gathered into this Temple in thirty years.—New American, by W. Hepworth Dixon.

Childhood and Life.

In childhood we live in creation, as in the unanxious shelter of some Eden: the innocent in a garden of fruits, where the tillage demands no toil, and with smallest restraint we have little else but to gather and destroy; and the utmost duty is to abstain rather than do, to keep the lips from forbidden fruits, not to spend the labor and sorrow of the brow or of the soul, to raise and multiply the bread of nature or of life.—And many, alas, there are who make their life this holiday sort of thing unto the end, and retain its childishness only from the nature of the case, losing all its innocence; stroling through it as a mere fruit-gathering place, a garden of indulgence, a paradise sacred no more.

Dana's paper nominates Mr. Hoffman for the Democratic Presidential candidate, and says "those who think that the Mayorality of New York is not an appropriate stepping stone to a Presidential nomination, forget that in 1812 De Witt Clinton, whose fame then rested almost solely upon his administration of the office of Mayor of New York, was the candidate opposed to the re-election of Mr. Madison, and carried eight of the then eighteen States."

Women are the friezes and carvings around the temples of humanity—the sauce which gives all the sweetness to the dumpling of life.

Raleigh, Tuesday, February 11, 1868.

THE Convention was engaged yesterday in the discussion of an amendment offered by Maj. Graham to the preamble of the Bill of Rights. The amendmant was defeated, and the preamble adopted as reported by the Committee. The consideration of the report on suffrage was postponed until to-morrow, and the Convention took up the report of the Committee on Militia. Our readers will find the report elsewhere. We ask that they will read it that they may fully understand the proceedings of the Convention.

By reference to our report of the proceedings, it will be seen that an amendment, offered by Maj. Graham, providing that "colored persons shall be organized into separate companies, and that no white man be required to obey a negro officer," was defeated by a vote of 83 nays to 9 ayes.

Every Radical on the floor gave his most solemn sanction to the perpetration of this shame and degradation upon the white men of the State by his vote.

This, then, is the programme! White men, North Carolinians, gentlemen are to be officered and ordered by dirty, greasy, ignorant and brutish negroes, and by men, having white skins, infinitely meaner and more brutish than they. In many of the eastern and middle counties of North Carolina the negroes have heavy majorities. Under this law all the officers of all the regiments—Colonels, Lieutenant Colonels, Majors, Captains and Lieutenants—will be filled by negroes, and the white men of those counties, bound hand and foot by reason of the paucity of their numbers, must yield a ready obedience to their commands, or they will be tried by court martials, composed of negro officers and PUNISHED for disobedience. Great God! shall these things be and not provoke us to action to prevent them?

We beg the white men of North Carolina to heed these things. This foul, corrupt and infamous body, which usurps powers never delegated by our people, is, step by step, breaking down the barriers between us and the negro, and is striving with demoniac hate to degrade us by asserting his right to a social equality with our sisters, daughters, mothers and wives. They seek not to elevate the negro, but to degrade us. They care not for our rights, our feelings, or our customs—they seek power, place, gold, and they will sell our souls into slavery to get them.

If this action does not arouse us to a full exertion of all our powers to defeat their devilish designs, woe be unto us. If, by inaction, dissensions or indifference, we neglect any opportunity to subvert their devilish schemes, we shall deserve the disgrace they seek to bring upon us. Let us begin just now. Explain to the people the dangers which threaten them—teach them the transcendant importance of the coming contest, and conjuring them by the precious memories of the Past and their hopes for the Future, not to remain idle or careless, we can yet vindicate and preserve our customs and our honor.

THE process of reasoning by which the very able, impartial and conscientious Committee on Privileges and Elections arrived at the conclusion, that a certain Lorenzo D. Hall, who contests the seat held, in the Congo Convention, by Mr. Alex. Williams, a delegate from the county of Sampson, is the legally elected delegate, is, if not absolutely convincing, at least creditable to its ingenuity. We hope that our readers have all read the report. Fearing that they have not done so, we republish it to-day. It is as follows:

"The committee on Privileges and Elections ask leave to withdraw their report of Friday, and to report as follows: It appears from the returns that Lorenzo Dow Hall received 357 votes, Randall Hall 114, L. D. Hall 289, Lorenzo D. Hall 60 votes, and Ransom Hall 149 votes, making a majority for all persons voted for in the name of Hall. There were also 54 votes cast, which were informal. The committee are of the opinion that all the votes for Hall were intended for Lorenzo D. Hall, and they, therefore, recommend that he be admitted to his seat in this Convention."

The Committee are of the opinion that Alexander Williams, the incumbent, is an opponent of radicalism, and a white man in his sentiments: that Lorenzo D. Hall, the contestant, is a Radical, and that his "loyalty" and labors in the cause of darkness and the devil deserve a reward, in the form of the mileage and per diem, incident to membership in the Convention. Of course they are. What other opinion could a Radical committee have in such a matter? To decide in favor of Williams and against the claims of one of the "lambs" would be rank treason! It would be doing that which a Radical never does, in such cases, justice to an avowed and outspoken enemy.

WONDERFUL PERFORMANCES IN NATURAL HISTORY!!

(BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER UNDER THE TABLE.)

[The reader is particularly requested to remember the fact that no Reporter for this paper is allowed on the floor, in the halls or in the galleries of the Convention, and consequently our reports are made from under the table, behind the scenes, or as may be otherwise ordered and convenient.]

[TWENTY-THIRD DAY.]

MONDAY, Feb. 10th, 1868.

The exhibition was opened and the performance commenced at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Proceedings of Saturday read from the North Carolinian and approved.

A communication from the Virginia and North Carolina Conference of M. E. Church, at Richmond, submitting a report on education, was read and referred to the Committee on Education.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Durham, a resolution as follows:

Whereas, It is a matter of common rumor that corrupting influences have been used to secure the passage of certain ordinances which have been passed by this Convention, and whereas, if these rumors are true, it is the duty of this body to ascertain who are the guilty parties, and expose such corruption. Therefore be it

Resolved, That a select Committee of three members be appointed by the President, whose duty it shall be to ascertain and report whether corrupting influences have been used to secure the passage of any ordinance which has been passed by this Convention, and, if so, the names of the guilty parties, and all the facts connected therewith, and the said Committee shall have power to send for persons and papers, administer oaths and examine witnesses.

Mr. Durham said it was rumored on the streets, in the hotels, and everywhere else, that money has been used to bribe members to vote for certain ordinances; if so, it ought to be known, and the name of the person bribed ought to go down in ignominy to posterity. He hoped there was not a member base enough to accept a bribe. It was a rumor, and it was a duty of this body to ascertain its truth, and if found to be true, the name of the person ought to be known.

The rules were suspended and the resolution passed.

Mr. Abbott, the Granite State shaker, moved a resolution of thanks to (Be-a-nigger-dear) Gen. Miles [for the heroic valor displayed by that (in) famous officer in manacling President Davis, and for his recent lying dispatches to Washington in regard to the condition of affairs in North Carolina.]

The rules were suspended and the resolution adopted.

The indomitable Shaker was so delighted at the result of the preceding motion, that he straightway introduced a resolution, providing that no one shall move the previous question but the chairman of the committee whose report is under consideration.

The rules were suspended, and the resolution put on its passage.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, who, reversing the old adage, prefers rather to be a King among dogs than a dog among the Kings, protested and declared if such a resolution was passed, the Convention might as well "git up and git" home.

Mr. Shaker Abbott said some such rule should be made.

The man of the regal name from Lenoir, said that four weeks had already been consumed without accomplishing anything. [Ex nihilo, nihil fit, Mr. King.]

The rules were suspended and the King called for the ayes and noes.

Mr. Rodman, "the mildest mannered man that ever scuttled ship or cut a throat," very blandly observed that the gentleman's ideas were exceedingly opaque as to the effect of the resolution.

The house declined to hear the ayes and noes.

Harris, nigger, of Wake, said he didn't believe in leaving the decision to our member, and, like Desdemona, "was seriously inclined" to doubt the propriety of passing any such resolution.—But the resolution was put and carried.

Mr. Tourgee, the man of the horrid name, offered a resolution providing that on and after to-day, the menagerie give two exhibitions daily, one at 10, A. M., and one at 7, P. M. Laid over.

Abbott, of New Hampshire, gave notice that he would call up the resolution in relation to the previous question to-morrow. Abbott moved that when the exhibition closed, it close until 7½ o'clock this evening, which was lost, as many of the Capitol baboons and gorillas had made up their minds to visit Dan Castello's show during the evening to see their cousins.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Tourgee presented a report from the committee on Towns, &c., recommending that the ordinance referred to their consideration, in reference to the act incorporating the town of Columbia, in the county of Tyrrell, be adopted. The report was accepted and the ordinance adopted.

CALLENDAR.

Memorial from the citizens of Guilford county, praying a prohibition of the distillation of grain, presented by Mr. Welker. Referred to the committee of Three to confer with Gen. Canby.

Mr. Tourgee moved that the committee of Three be instructed to report it back, which motion was carried.

The ordinance in regard to Bank liabilities, introduced by Mr. Welker, was ordered to be printed.

An ordinance levying a tax of 75 per cent. on old debts, introduced by Mr. McDonald, of Chatham.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved an indefinite postponement.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, demanded the yeas and nays, which being called, resulted in the affirmative—yeas, 72; nays 13.

Resolution providing that a committee of three be appointed to petition Congress to reduce the revenue tax on tobacco, introduced by Mr. Petree. Carried.

At this stage of the proceedings great excitement prevailed in the museum, the gorillas manifesting an irrepressible desire to see Dan Castello's circus and menagerie wagons, which were then filing around Capitol Square, while the congos and kangaroos rushed pell mell to the windows, the better to observe these rivals of "The New Sensation."

Hood, Congo, moved to take a recess until the "show" had passed, but withdrew his motion in obedience to a wink from Manager Cowles, who evidently preferred that the resolution should not be transmitted to "de archives of gravity."

Mr. Rodman introduced an ordinance in favor of James H. Snow, Sheriff of Halifax.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, moved to lay on the table.

Mr. Rodman asked that Mr. King withdraw his motion, as he much preferred that it should go to a committee to be composed of delegates from Halifax county.

Eppes, nigger, asked that the motion be withdrawn.

Mr. King, to oblige members, withdrew his motion, and on motion of Mr. Abbott, the ordinance was referred.

Mr. Bradley presented an ordinance in favor of J. C. Jones, Sheriff of Alleghany county, allowing two years to collect the unpaid taxes of 1866.

Mr. Bryan moved to amend the ordinance by including every Sheriff in the Sate, giving them all two years to collect taxes.

Mr. Tourgee moved to lay the ordinance on the table. Carried.

Mr. Bryan gave notice that he would introduce a resolution extending the time for the collection of taxes.

Mr. Rich offered a resolution giving the Governor the veto power.

Mr. Heaton suggested to recommit to the committee to be called up when the first article of the Constitution was reported from the committee. Mr. Rich agreed.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The report of the committee on the Bill of Rights, being the special order.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved to amend the preamble by striking out the word "and" and inserting in 3d line "imploring the restoration of our political, religious and civil liberties." He could not vote for the preamble at it stood, but moved to amend in order to show that our political, civil and religious liberties were not in existence, and that this Convention implore their establishment once more.

On motion of Mr. French, of Chowan, (the suffrage matter being the precedent) the report of the Committee on Suffrage was postponed until Wednesday, 12 o'clock.

The question then recurring on Mr. Graham's amendment,

Mr. Jones, of Washington, said the amendment was more in the form of a petition than that of an amendment, and hoped every line, every word and every sentence in the preamble would be retained.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, did not desire to open any old sores of debate, as the member had said. It was true we ought to be thankful for the few liberties we now had, but he desired the liberties he had once had. The dungeons were filled with men that the habeas corpus could not reach, and he desired all the former liberties to be restored.

Hood, nigger, said there was more liberty in North Carolina to-day under military rule than ever before, and he would therefore oppose the amendment, which was lost.

The preamble was then adopted as reported.

Mr. Heaton moved to take up the caption in the report, and

Mr. Welker moved to amend by striking out the words "general, great," in the first line, and the words "recognised and" in the second line, and in the last line, "and affirmed," which motion was lost.

Mr. Heaton moved to adopt as reported, which prevailed.

Mr. Heaton then moved to make the remaining portions the special order for 12 o'clock Thursday, which was agreed to.

The Report of the Committee on Militia then coming up, it was read section by section.

In first section, Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved to amend by inserting that "colored persons shall be organized into separate companies, and that no white man be required to obey a negro officer." Mr. Graham said he had heard some of the members say they were opposed to social equality, and that he believed the colored people would prefer separate organizations, and on this question he would call the ayes and nays.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, preferred the bill as reported by the Committee.

Hayes, nigger, offered an amendment, which Mr. Graham accepted, but the President would not allow it to be reported. It was subsequently withdrawn.

The ayes and nays being called on the amendment resulted in the negative—yeas 9; nays 83.

Messrs. Bradley, Durham, Ellis, Graham, of Orange, Hare, Hodnett, Marler, Merritt, Williams, of Sampson.

Messrs. Abbott, Andrews, Ashley, Barnes, Bryan, Carey, (nigger,) Cherry, (nigger,) Chilson, Congleton, Cox, Daniel, Dickey, Duckworth, Eppes, (nigger,) Etheridge, Fisher, Forkner, Franklin, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, French of Chowan, Gahagan, Galloway, (nigger,) Garland, George, Glover, Graham, of Montgomery, Grant, of Wayne, Grant, of Northampton, Gully, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, (nigger,) Harris, of Franklin Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, (nigger) Heaton, Highsmith, (nigger,) Hobbs, Hoffler, Hood, (nigger,) Hyman, (nigger,) Ing, Jones, of Washington, King, of Lincoln, King, of Lenoir, Kinney, Lafflin, Lee, (nigger,) Legg, Logan, Long, Mann, May, Mayo, (nigger,) McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, Morton, Mullican, Murphy, Nance, Newsom, Parks, Petree, Pierson, (nigger,) Ragland, Ray, Renfrow, Rhodes, Rich, Robbins, (nigger,) Rodman, Smith, Stilley, Stilwell, Sweet, Taylor, Teague, Tourgee, Tucker, Turner, Watts, Welker, Williams, of Wake.

The section was then put and adopted as reported.

Section 2, 3, and 4, were read and adopted as reported.

The report of the Committee on Corporations, other than Municipal was then called up and read by section.

The 1st, 2nd, and 3rd sections were read and adopted.

The fourth section was read, and Mr. Tourgee offered the following substitute for the 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th sections:

SEC. 4. No banks of issue shall be established under the authority of this State.

Mr. Tourgee believed the matter should be in the hands of the general government alone.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, in substance said, his affections still leaned towards the old landmarks of former times. We are now depending on the United States currency to procure us our bread, and he wished to see the purse and sword separated. It would be going back to the days of barbarism to say that the State should not provide for the people a general banking system. He meant to limit the banks by such acts as would preclude all ideas of suspending payments.

Mr. Abbott moved to strike out sections 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th, and to refer the subject matter to the Committee on Finance, as a good deal of the matter properly belonged to that committee.

Mr. Jones did not think so.

Mr. Abbott withdrew his motion until the 3d reading.

Mr. Heaton concurred with Mr. Jones, of Washington.

On motion of Mr. Tourgee, the balance of the report was postponed until Friday next, at 12 o'clock.

Manager Cowles her announced that the exhibition was closed until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

NEWS AND MISCELLANY.

Some parties are predicting a split in the Republican Nominating Convention. Chief Justice Chase's friends are very loth to let his chances for the next Presidency be sacrificed in favor of a General who, they assert, will never declare himself a thorough Radical; and now there are really many indications that the division of sentiment among the Radicals will really develope themselves into a break-up at Chicago.

President Johnson's reply to Grant's last letter will be published in a day or two. The friends of the President anticipate, as no doubt will be the case, the complete annihilation of the General-in Chief. The correspondence of which it forms a part is still a subject of much discussion, and will form, without doubt, one of the leading topics during the approaching campaign.

The New York Republican State Convention, which assembled in Syracuse on the 5th, unanimously pronounced in favor of Gen. Grant for the Presidency and Gov. Reuben E. Fenton, of that State, for Vice President. Mr. Greeley, a strong supporter of Chief Justice Chase, participated in the meeting and acquiesced in the recommendations.

Gen. D. E. Sickles, Lyman Tremain, Charles Andrews, and D. D. S. Brown were chosen delegates to the Chicago Convention for the State at large.

A Georgia exchange says that while a majority of planters in the Southern and Western portions of that State have become bankrupt in their attempt to raise cotton, almost every farmer in Northern Georgia has made money by raising wheat and corn.

The anti-contraction bill, which forbids any further reduction of the currency, having become a law by the failure of the President to return it within the time prescribed by the constitution, the Department of State has issued a proclamation declaring it in force.

The New York Herald states that either Secretary Seward or the Hon. Reverdy Johnson will be appointed to succeed Mr. Charles Francis Adams, as Minister to England.

A caucus of the Democratic members of the New Jersey Legislature has adopted a resolution recommending ex-Governor Joel Parker for President.

General Kilpatrick is reported to be coming home from Chili, at the request of certain Republicans in New Jersey, who want him to run as their candidate for Governor this fall.

Gen. John M. Palmer (Republican) positively declines being a candidate for Governor of Illinois.

Gov. Carney will be the Republican, and Geo. W. Glick, of Atchison, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Kansas.

Report of the Committee on Militia, dated February 10th, 1867.

SEC. 1. All able-bodied male citizens of the State of North Carolina, between the ages of twenty-one and forty years, who are citizens of the United States, shall be liable to duty in the Militia: Provided, That all persons who may be adverse to bearing arms from religious scruples shall be exempt therefrom.

SEC. 2. The General Assembly shall provide for the organizing, arming, equipping, and discipline of the Militia, and for paying the same when called into active service.

SEC. 3. The Governor shall be Commander-in-Chief, and have power to call out the Militia to execute the law, suppress riots or insurrections.

SEC. 4. The General Assembly shall have power to make such exemptions as may be deemed necessary, and to enact laws that may be expedient for the government of the Militia.

OUR NOON DISPATCHES.

The Alabama Election.

MONTGOMERY, Feb. 10th.

Out of seventeen of the South Alabama counties, embracing the large negro counties of the State, the Constitution is behind 3,700 votes. The hill counties and the Florida line of counties will place it at least 10,000 behind. The election last Fall on the Convention was held only at the Court Houses and continued but three days. The Convention was carried by about 10,000 over one half of the registered vote. Three times as many voting places were opened at the election on the Constitution, and this election continued five days. It is a clear defeat, the managers of the election being Radicals.

MOBILE, Feb. 9th.

The election concluded yesterday. It passed off in a most orderly manner. The vote here stands: Whites 89, negroes 4916.

OUR MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.

HOUSE.—Under the regular Monday's call the following bills were introduced:

A bill instructing the Reconstruction Committee to report what further legislation is necessary to enable the Southern States to resume their places in the Union.

A bill continuing the Freedman's Bureau in Tennessee.

A bill to allow respondents in the United States Courts to testify in their own behalf, where such testimony is permitted by the local courts.

A large number of private bills were introduced.

The Judiciary Committee was directed to inquire into the expediency of amending the Bankrupt Law so as to require a majority of the creditors to compel involuntary bankruptcy.

A resolution declaring that the seat of government should be removed to the Mississippi Valley was defeated by a strictly sectional vote: 77 to 97.

The drawing of seats caused much confusion and merriment.

The bill providing for bridging the Mississippi River at Rock Island caused long discussion. A bill authorizing its building at the joint expense of the government and of the railroad companies, finally passed.

A resolution calling on Gen. Grant for a copy of the President's last letter, and referring the Judiciary Committee's impeachment evidence to the Reconstruction Committee, with privilege to report at any time, was passed.

House then went into Committee of the Whole. A general discussion which ensued showed an increasing partisan bitterness. Adjourned.

SENATE.—After the introduction of a number of private bills, resolutions and memorials, reconstruction was resumed. After discussion, the Senate went into Executive session and adjourned.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.

The Supreme Court to-day gave the reasons for the adverse decision made at last term in the petition of the State of Georgia, praying the Court to restrain Stanton, Grant and Pope from the execution of the Reconstruction acts. The question involved and the right sought to be protected were exclusively political in their character, relating to sovereignty and government and not to rights of persons or property, and that the Court had no jurisdiction therefore of the subject matter of the bill. The judges cite the cases of the State of Rhode Island vs. State or Massachusetts, and the case of the Cherokee Indians vs. the State of Georgia and other cases to show that the Court had no jurisdiction to decide a political question. The Chief Justic concurred in the result but not in the reason assigned.

Chief Justice Chase announced that the present term would be adjourned on the first Monday in April.

There is intense anxiety to see the President's last letter to Gen. Grant. It is stated that the Cabinet is strongly averse to Gen. Grant's version of the affair.

Edward Maynard, U. S. Consul at Turk's Island, is dead.

Chas. K. Trecheman, of New York, has been nominated as minister to Greece.

Revenue to-day $1,500,000.

The Supreme Court to-day, in the case of the State of Texas vs. White et. al., on a motion to dissolve an injunction restraining White et. al. from selling certain bonds, on the ground, among others that Texas, being no State, had no rights in court, decided to refuse to dissolve the injunction. Chief Justice Chase delivered the opinion.

Virginia Convention.

RICHMOND, Feb. 10.

The Judiciary Committee reported adversely on two resolutions—one for scaling debts made prior to April, 1865, at 25 cents on the dollar, and another declaring all debts prior to that date null and void. The committee's report takes the ground that debts contracted for the purchase of slaves cannot be set aside. The report was adopted by a vote of 72 to 6. A section of a report giving the legislature the power to sell the State's interest in internal improvements and devote the proceeds to the liquidation of the State debt, was adopted. Adjourned.

PROSPECTUS OF THE WESTERN VINDICATOR.

On or before the 1st of March, prox., the undersigned will commence the publication of a weekly newspaper bearing the above title, in the town of Rutherfordton, N. C.

The Western Vindicator, as its name signifies, will be devoted to the support of Western interests and the dissemination of useful intelligence, selected with especial reference to the wants of the section it will labor to represent.

Politically, it will, for the present, adhere to no party organization; but will give a cheerful support to all measures looking to the speedy restoration of the Union, the preservation of the Constitution intact, the supremacy of the white race, and the perpetuity of Republican liberty in America.

The "Vindicator" will have a larger circulation in Rutherford, Polk and Cleaveland counties than any other newspaper. Advertising rates low.

Terms—$2 per annum.

R. A. SHOTWELL,
Feb 11-tf. Rutherfordton, N. C.

P. F. PESCUD,

DRUGGIST AND INSURANCE AGENT,

RALEIGH, N. C.,

He represents

TEN FIRE INSURANCE COMPANIES,

the ombined capital and assets of which amounts to $6,000,00, and

THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, whose assets exceed $17,000,000, at 9 per cent. interest.

The interest has exceeded losses for the past 13 years, and there has been a return of fifty per cent. premium money to Policy Holders for 18 years past. This is more than any other company in the United States can say.

Please call and see me at

MY OLD STAND,

where I may be found, ready and willing to oblige the public.

P. F. PESCUD.
Raleigh, Feb. 1-3m.

ASSETS $17,000,000 00

With an income over

$6,500,000 00.

Surplus assets, deducting liabilities, over

$6,000,000 00.

The CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, of Hartford, Connecticut, was organized in 1846, and now has over

55,000 POLICIES,

in force, being a larger number than any other Company in the world.

Its Net Assets are larger than any other Company.

Dividends have averaged over 50 per cent, and a credit of one-half the premium is given, which, in case of death is cancelled by anticipated dividends.

The interest received, during the past ten years, has more than paid its losses.

Great care in the selections of risks;
Low rates of mortality;
Extreme low ratio of expenses to receipts;
Immense income for interest, and
Consequent large dividends, reduce assurance to its lowest possible cost.

ALL POLICIES NON-FORFEITABLE BY THEIR TERMS.

THE

NORTH CAROLINIAN,

A DAILY,

Democratic Newspaper,

PUBLISHED AT

RALEIGH, N. C.

W. A. HEARNE, JOHN W. DUNHAM,

EDITORS.

The NORTH CAROLINIAN is Democratic in its principles. It is unalterably opposed to Negro Suffrage, Military rule, and Reconstruction upon the basis of Congressional enactment.

Its Editors believe and teach that this is a

WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT,

FRAMED BY THE BRAINS, AND

WON BY THE BLOOD OF WHITE MEN,

FOR THE BENEFIT OF WHITE MEN,

AND THAT IT SHOULD BE

CONTROLLED BY WHITE MEN ONLY.

As there is but ONE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION professing these sentiments and committed to their maintenance, the NORTH CAROLINIAN will steadily advocate the abandonment of all other party names and organizations, and yield a hearty co-operation with that organization—the NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN,

Will contain the freshest News, by telegraph and otherwise. Full reports of all Legislative Assemblies will be furnished its readers.

Particular attention will be paid to State news, and each number will contain a complete epitome of every incident reported in the State press.

MARKETS will be carefully reported.

The Weekly North Carolinian

Is the largest and handsomest paper in the State and will be filled with choice family reading and selected literary matter.

PRICE OF SUBSCRIPTION:

GOOD NEWS!

The editor of the Old North State has learned from a letter written by Louis Zimmer, Esq., General Southern Agent of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, "that arrangements will soon be made with the Railroads of North Carolina and the Steamship lines, connecting therewith via Norfolk or Newbern, to issue a regular emigrant's ticket from New York to all parts of this State. An agent will be stationed at Castle Garden, where all emigrants land, in order to send them directly South, before they become contaminated with New York or Western bound fever. As soon as this is done the Company will be ready, at various points in this State, to supply families with German girls, for cooking and other purposes, also farm laborers, mechanics, &c."

This is practical reconstruction. In the great interest taken in our political condition, we must not neglect our material development. We believe that if the advantages offered immigrants by the soil, climate and resources of North Carolina, were properly and fairly presented, that thousands of industrious laborers could be brought amongst us. In this way, and this way only, can our industrial enterprises be promoted. Free negro labor has proved itself a failure—the negroes not having yet been disabused of the idea that freedom means immunity from labor. When immigrants begin to arrive in numbers, proportionate to the need for them, the era of North Carolina's prosperity will be fairly inaugurated.

If we are not mistaken, the order of Gen. Canby, prescribing the manner of holding the election and the kind of ballot to be used, expressly required that the entire Christian name of the delegate should be written or printed on the ballot. By the reconstruction acts, which the members of this committee laud and defend, the General commanding the district, in which an election is held is made, the sole judge of the legality of that election. The returns were to be made, through the various Post Commanders, to him, and he was to decide who were entitled to seats in the Convention, if one were called.

Gen. Canby has made his decision in Mr. Williams' case, and the report of this committee was an impertinent interference with his prerogatives. Upon his certificate, and that only, were all the members of this body allowed to take part in its deliberations. Are they greater than he, who gave them political being? If not, by what authority do they reflect upon his fairness or capacity?

There is a pretext for asserting that the votes cast for Lorenzo Dow Hall, L. D. Hall and Lorenzo D. Hall, were intended to be cast for Lorenzo D. Hall. A pretext merely—not proof. The committee did not seek that. The truth did not answer their purpose. But how the Committee on Privileges and Elections could declare that votes cast for Ransom Hall and Randall Hall, were intended to be cast for Lorenzo D. Hall, is beyond our comprehension. It requires Radical brains to solve the problem.

FIRE IN PETERSBURG.

From a failure to receive our Petersburg exchanges we were not aware that that city, like Norfolk, had recently suffered a serious loss of property by fire. The fire occurred on Friday night last, and entirely consumed the stocks of Mrs. M. E. Kull, milliner, and A. Miller, dry goods merchant. Mrs. Kull was insured for $5,000, and Mr. Miller for $10,000. The buildings were also insured. Messrs. Noah Walker & Co. sustained a slight loss from damage done their goods by water.

In these times of stringency and depression, we unfeignedly sympathise with the losers in the Cockade city.

ADDITIONAL CANVASSERS.

In addition to the gentlemen announced in our last, the following have been designated for that duty in the counties in which they reside:

Cleaveland—Col Lee M McAfee, J. W. Gidney, H D Lee, H Cabaniss and A R Homesley.

Rutherford—L P Erwin, Joseph Carson, G W Whitesides, Thos S Duffy and W H Miller.

CITY AND STATE.

"Whar ye Gwine, Stephen?"

A seditious praper, published in this city, propounded the foregoing interrogatory a few days since, and the public curiosity was a tiptoe awaiting the answer. It seems that a number of "kullerd gemmen" were invited to retire from Commons Hall when the Conservative Convention met there in caucus on Wednesday evening last. Some of these sable radicals, keenly sensible of this injury, complained of the wrong they had suffered through the pollywog newspaper already referred to. The editor of said paper stated, in the same connection, that Stephen Worth, an employee of Gov. Worth—one of the few Conservative negroes of this county, was one of the parties aggrieved—that this was the way in which the Conservatives treated their negro friends, etc., closing his luguburious jeremaid with the pertinent and pathetic inquiry of—"Whar ye gwine, Stephen?"

Stephen answers the question in the Sentinel of Saturday, and we presume his answer was satisfactory, since the propounder thereof has nothing further to say.

Stephen pronounces the allegation a lie; and says, in language more emphatic than parliamentary, that the writer thereof knew when he wrote it, that he was penning "an infamous lie."

We feel but little interest in this controversy, and merely write as in duty bound, to deprecate blood-shed. Stephen says he is "personally responsible," and is evidently disposed to pursue the matter to a sanguinary issue.

While we cannot refrain from commending Stephen's pluck in the premises, and hoping that his letter, fittingly illustrated, may garnish the brightest page in de archives of gravity, our sober second thought in the interests of peace and humanity impels us to demand that both parties be bound over forthwith.

The Western Vindicator.

Capt. R. A. Shotwell, formerly connected with the editorial management of the Newbern Journal of Commerce, will commence the publication of a weekly newspaper, in the town of Rutherfordton, on or before the first of March next, bearing the above title. Captain Shotwell has much experience, is a graceful writer, and will make the Vindicator a power for good in the mountain section of the State. His influence and talents will be used in the cause of truth and justice. In the approaching canvass he will greatly aid the success of correct principles if his people will sustain his efforts. See his prospectus elsewhere.

The Circus Last Night.

We believe we echo the opinion of all present at the circus last night, when we say that the performance was rather superior to anything of the kind seen in the Southern country since the war. The riding was very good, and the gymnastic exercises were quite as well received by the audience. The bad weather doubtless kept many, who would otherwise have attended, from doing so; but the audience was still quite a large one.

Those who find enjoyment in such matters, should by all means go to-day.

The Congo-Kangaroo-Congressional Convention.

The motley crew now collected at the Capitol, and known among niggers, traitors and interlopers as the Congressional Reconstruction Convention, in respect of ignorance, brutality, immorality and general depravity, eclipses any body ever before assembled on the American continent. The whole concern is an outrage upon common decency, and a damning disgrace to the boasted civilization of the nineteenth century.

"Oh, for a whip in every honest hand,
To lash the sneaking scoundrels from the land."

A Vote of Thanks.

At a meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, at the Lecture Room of the Presbyterian church, January 14, 1868, a vote of thanks was unanimously tendered to the following parties for their generous contributions in furtherance of the objects of the Association:

The municipal authorities of Raleigh,	$750 00
The citizens of Dyersburg, Tennessee,	173 25
Maryland Relief Association, through Hon. D. M. Barringer,	100 00

and to all who have kindly aided the Association.

C. H. HILL, Secretary.

On Dit.

That Manager Cowles, alarmed for the success of his show by seeing the large number of freedmen attracted by Dan Castello's Brass Band, had determined to introduce music in his performances, and would send Johnny McDonald to Chatham immediately to procure his banjo. Johnny got his "edication" under a nigger, and banjo-picking was one of the accomplishments taught in the school.

J. B. Hunter & Co, Portsmouth, Va.

We invite the attention of our readers to the card of the above house, which appears in our columns to-day. Mr. Hunter, senior member of the firm, is in this City, and will be glad to see parties having business with his house at the store of W. H. Jones & Co.

Meeting of the Y. M. C. A.

The regular meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held this (Tuesday) evening, February 11th, 1868, at 7½ P. M., at the Lecture Room of the Presbyterian church.

The Danville Times of Saturday, says that in a certain portion of Person county, in this State, the negroes have abandoned the modes of worship practiced by Christians, and have adopted a sort of Fetish worship, wonderfully similar in ceremony to that practiced in the interior of Africa and in some of the islands of the Pacific. The Times says that they assemble, form a circle, dance, shout and jump until compelled to desist by physical exhaustion.

We remember to have read, several months since, a communication written by the Rev. C. K. Marshall, we believe, giving an account of similar so-called religious exercises among the negroes of Mississippi and Louisiana. Since their emancipation the negroes have generally withdrawn the connection held with the churches to which they were attached before and during the war, and have established churches of their own; in many cases, we regret to say, presided over by ignorant negroes and depraved white men. Their spiritual welfare has been sadly neglected, in consequence, and the very worst results are coming of it.

It is lamentable to contemplate the consequences which have followed this separation, or rather it would be so, had we not the assurance of Brevt. Maj. Gen. Miles, Assistant Commissioner of Freedmen, &c., for North Carolina, that the blessed Bureau, of which he is the military and spiritual head in this State, was making the most strenuous exertions for the "spiritual" welfare of its wards. We should be much more hopeful and confident of its success, could we forget that while the Bureau has been continuously amongst us since the close of the war, murders, robberies, arson and crimes of all grades and characters have alarmingly increased.

The elegant residence belonging to the estate of Joshua G. Wright in Wilmington, was sold on Saturday under a decree of a Court of Equity. The dwelling and lot, one of the handsomest and most eligibly located in that city, was bought by Geo. Harris, Esq. The place could not have cost less than $25,000, we imagine, but it brought only $10,000 at this sale. The sale has yet to be confirmed by the court.

Sergeant's troupe gave its first performance in our sister city of Newberne last night. The Journal of Commerce bespeaks a full audience, in virtue of the flattering notices given the troupe in the Wilmington and Raleigh papers.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinnated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.

Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

CHRONIC LIVER COMPLAINT CURED.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skilful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $17. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address

Plough Deep.

BY WILLIAM OLAND BOURNE.

Ho! Yeoman! turning up the sod!
Thrust with your might the sharpened blade!
Turn up, turn up the heavy clod,
And find the treasure underlaid!
Not on the surface lies the boon—
Not where the skimmering idler plays;
Bring to the genial heat of noon
The richer soil to catch the rays!
Plough deep! Plough deep!

Give to the sinewy arm the will—
Give to thy toiling hands the might—
Wealth buried deep shall come to fill
The hands of him that toils aright.
Turn up! turn up the under soil;
Turn to the light, and air, and sky;
A larde reward repays his toil
Who delveth deep where treasures lie!
Plough deep! Plough deep!

Ho! Delver in the boundless field
Where truth lies waiting to be won!
Not priceless treasures will she yield,
While yet the task is just begun.
Turn up, turn up, with patient hand,
The deeper soil that hides the gold,
And rubies with the glittering sand
Thy longing eyes shall soon behold.
Plough deep! Plough deep!

Ho! Battler with the old-time wrong!
Ho! Laborer for the right of Man!
Cheer your bold hearts with bolder songs,
And toil for Freedom while you can.
Turn up, turn up, beneath the walls
Foundations laying broad and deep,
Till dome with pillow prostrate falls,
In dust and ruin long to sleep.
Plough deep! Plough deep!

Ho! Worker in the world's domain!
Ho! Toiler in our mighty age!
Before thee lies the open plain,
In whose great strife thou can'st engage.
Turn up, turn up the pregnant earth!
It waits to win the riper seeds:
They shall, in God's own time, give birth
To glorious and immortal deeds!
Plough deep! Plough deep!

An Old Epitaph.

There have been drifting about in various papers broken fragments of a quaint and instructive old epitaph, which is too good to be mutilated.

A correct copy may do good. In three lines it teaches the whole system of financial economy, which so few, even of the Master's disciples, understand. The last line is a compresensive exegesis of Jesus' exhortation after His parable of The Unjust Steward: "And I say unto you, make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that when ye fall, they may receive you into everlasting habitations." But to the record.

The London Review for 1795, which I have on my shelves, in an article reviewing the History of Devonshire by Mr. Polwhele, says: "In the church in Tiverton was a chapel built by the Earls of Devon, and appropriated for their burials. Here was the tomb of Edward Courtenay and his Countess. On the tomb was the following inscription:

Ho! Ho! who lies here?
'Tis I, the good Earl of Devonshire,
With Kate, my wife, to me full dear,
We lived together fifty-five year.
That we spent we had;
That we left, we lost;
That we gave, we have."

The Old Man.

Bow low thy head, boy: do reverence to the old man, once like you. The vicissitudes of life have silvered his hair and changed the round merry face to the worn visage before you. Once that heart beat with aspiration co-equal to any you have felt, aspiration crushed by disappointment as yours perhaps is destined to be. Once that form stalked proudly through the gay scenes of pleasure, the bean ideal of grace; now the hand of time that withers the flowers of yesterday, has wrapt that figure and destroyed that noble carriage. Once at your age, he possessed the thousand thoughts that pass through your brain, now wishing to accomplish deeds equal to a nook in fame; anon imagining life a dream that the sooner he awoke from it the better. But he has lived the dream very near through, the time to 'awaken is very near at hand; yet his eye ever kindles at old deeds of daring, and the hand takes a firmer grasp of the staff. Bow low the head, boy, as you would in your old age, be reverenced.

The pastor of a city church was catechising the pupils of his Sabbath school, and remarked: "Remember, dear children, that God is everywhere."

The words had hardly escaped his lips when a roguish little fellow rose up and said to the pastor:

"Please, sir, did you say God was everywhere?"

"Yes, my son, everywhere."

"Is he in my pocket?"

"Yes, he is in your pocket."

"Well, I guess I've got you there," was the triumphant retort. "Because I ain't got any pocket."

Artemus Ward says, "I returned in the hoss car part of the way. A pooty gal in spectacles sot near me, and was telling a young man how much he reminded her of a young man she used to know in Waltham. Pooty soon the young man got out, and smiling in a seductive manner, I said to the gal in spectacles—"Don't I remind you of somebody you used to know?" "Yes," she said, "you do remind me of one man, but he was sent to the penitentiary for stealing a barrel of mackerel; he died there, so I conclood you ain't him." I didn't pursue the conversation."

The more we sink into the infirmities of age, the nearer we are to immortal youth. All people are young in the other world. That state is eternal spring, ever fresh and flourishing. Now to pass from midnight into noon on the sudden, to be decrepit one minute and all spirit and activity the next, must be an entertaining change. To call this dying is an abuse of language.

A Dutch member of the Pennsylvania Legislature on his return home after the adjournment of that body was asked by one of his constituents what had been done during the session. "I don't know what de oders do—but for myself I clear von hundred dollars by it."

"Nothing can be done well that is done in a hurry," oracularly declared a certain pompous politician in New York one day lately, on the steps of the City Hall.

"How about catching fleas!" asked a wag at his elbow. The policician was floored.

An impertinent editor in Alabama asks when we intend to pay the "debt of nature." We are enclined to think when nature gets her dues from him it will be by an execution.

"Never listen to flatterers," said a mother to her daughter. "Why, mother, how shall I know they flatter unless I listen?" was the quick response of the young miss.

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION OF THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a chairman and thirty members—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

PLATFORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial department are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal offices.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

MISCELLANEOUS.

NOTICE TO SHIPPERS OF SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

The Seaboard Inland Air Line, Via Portsmouth, Va., is now prepared to ship Spirits Turpentine to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, its steamers having bern arranged for that purpose.

This Air Line Route, from the fact of its avoiding transshipment from one Steamer to another, to which other lines are subject, and being the direct line between the Carolinas and the Northern Cities, with daily communication to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and to Boston a Steamer every five days, offers great facilities for shipping, and is in advance of all other routes from three to five days and at as low rates.

In shipping from the Northern Cities, or from Carolina, be careful to ship via Portsmouth, and by the Steamship Lines connecting with and forming part of this Route.

From Boston, Merchants and Miner's Line, E. Sampson, Agent, end Central Wharf.

From New York, Old Dominion Steamship Company, Pier 37, North river, M. L. McCready President, Office 187 Greenwich street.

From Philadelphia, Clyde Steamers, 14 South Delaware Avenue, W. P. Clyde, Agent.

Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, J. L. Wilson, Agent.

From Baltimore, Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock, R. L. Poor, Agent.

All claims for loss, damage, or overcharge, promptly settled by applying to JAS. McCARRICK, Trace Agent, Seaboard Inland Air Line, Portsmouth, Va.

The Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad and Bay Line, having been consolidated under one Management from Weldon to Baltimore, offer greater facilities to shippers of freight to and from Baltimore than any other line, and guarantees safety of freight and prompt settlement of all claims.

☞ GIVE ME A CALL.

J. D. GALE, No. 17 East Side Market Square, Sign of the Pad-Lock, Norfolk, Va.

The undersigned have this day sold to Mr. Jas. D. Gale, their stock of Hardware, Cutlery, &c., at No. 17 East Side Market Square. In retiring from the retail trade, they return hearty thanks to their friends for the substantial evidences of their good will, and ask for their successor the same kind consideration and regard.

E. J. GRIFFITH & CO. to Aug. 24.

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.
